Middletown Transcript.

VOL. VI. MIDDLETOWN, NEW CASTLE COUNTY, DELAWARE, SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 22, 1873. NO. 47.

Made to "See It."

"I can't seeit," said Buffer. "Nobody reads all these little advertisements. It's preposterous to think it."

"But," said the editor, "you read what interests you?"

"Yes."

"And if there's anything that you particularly want, you look for it?"

"Certainly."

"Well, among the thousands upon thousands who help to make up this busy world of ours everything that is printed is read. Sneer as you please, I do assure you that printer's ink is the true open sesame to all business success."

And still Buffer couldn't see it. He didn't believe that one-half of those little, crowded advertisements were ever read.

"Suppose you try the experiment," said the editor. "Just slip in an advertisement of the want of one of the most common things in the world. For the sake of the test I will give it two insertions free. Two will be enough; and you may have it jammed into any out-of-the-way nook of my paper you shall select. Two insertions, of only two lines. Will you try it?"

Buffer said of course he would try it. And he selected the place where he would have it published—crowded in under the head of "Wants." And he waited and saw a proof of his advertisement, which appeared as follows:

WANTED.—A good House Dog. Apply to J. Buffer, 575 Towser street, between the hours of 6 and 9 P. M.

Buffer went away smiling and nodding. On the following morning he opened his paper, and after a deal of hunting he found his advertisement. At first it did not seem at all conspicuous. Certainly so insignificant a paragraph, buried in such a wilderness of paragraphs, could not attract notice. After a time, however, it began to look more noticeable to him. The more he looked at it the plainer it grew. Finally it glared at him from the closely printed page. But that was because he was the person particularly interested. Of course it would appear conspicuous to him. But it could not be so to others.

That evening Mr. Buffer was just sitting down to tea (Buffer was a plain, old-fashioned man, and took tea at six) when his door-bell was rung. The servant announced that a man was at the door with a dog to sell.

"Tell him I don't want one."

Six times Buffer was interrupted while taking tea by men with dogs to sell. Buffer was a man who would not lie. He had put his foot in, and he must take it out manfully. The twenty-third applicant was a small boy, with a girl in company, who had a ragged dirty poodle for sale. Buffer bought the poodle of the boy, and immediately presented it to the girl, and then sent them off.

To the next applicant he was able truthfully to answer,—"Don't want any more. I've bought one."

The stream of callers continued until ten o'clock, at which hour Buffer locked up and turned off the gas.

On the following evening, as Buffer approached his house, he found a crowd assembled. He counted thirty nine men and boys, each one of whom had a dog in tow. There were dogs of every grade, size and color, and dogs of every quality of whine, yelp, bark, growl and howl. Buffer addressed the motley multitude, and informed them that he had purchased a dog.

"Then what d'yer advertise for?"

And Buffer got his hat knocked over his eyes before he reached the sanctuary of his home.

Never mind about the trials and tribulations of that night. Buffer had had no idea that there were so many dogs in existence. With the aid of three policemen he got through alive. On the next morning he visited his friend, the editor, and acknowledged the corn. The advertisement "WANTED" was taken out, and in the most conspicuous place, and in glaring type, he advertised that he didn't want any more dogs. And for this advertisement he paid. Then he went home and pasted upon his door—"GONE INTO THE COUNTRY." Then he hired a special policeman to guard his property: and then he locked up and went away with his family.

From that day, Josephus Buffer has never been heard to express doubt concerning the efficacy of printer's ink; neither has he asked,—"Who reads advertisements?"—Ledger.

The dome of St. Paul's is 111 feet high; of St Peter's, 155 feet, and of the 1862 Exhibition, 159 feet; the height of the Rotunda in the Prater of Vienna is 854 feet; the Rotunda, with its dome, is more than triple the size of St. Peter's; its circumference is 1,080 feet, or, including the exterior colonade, 440 feet; its height to the spring of the dome is 200 feet, the main dome is another 100 feet, and the upper dome, or lantern, yet 54 feet more.

Sincerity is speaking as we think, believing as we promise, and being as we appear to be.

CAUSES FOR TRIAL AND ARGUMENT

At the November Term, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, before the Superior Court, to be held in New Castle, in and for New Castle County.

The Chancellorship.

To criticise the official acts of those in authority is an inherent right of the American people, and one which, as one of the privileges of a free press, will ever be exercised by independent journalists.

The recent appointment, by Gov. Ponder, of ex-U. S. Senator Saulsbury to the Chancellorship, has met with various comments from the press and people of the State. To the vast majority it was a source of the greatest surprise. Few, if any, had ever thought of Mr. Saulsbury in connection with the office. The names of several other, well-qualified and able, gentlemen had been suggested, among whom John R. McFee, Esq. had been settled upon by many as the one who would most probably receive the appointment, and the announcement that the duties and responsibilities of that high office had been entrusted to ex-Senator Saulsbury fell like an electric shock upon the ears of the people.

The office of the Chancellor is one of the highest responsibility. Upon him frequently devolves the decision, without the aid of a jury, of questions which require the most thorough knowledge of law, the clearest sense of justice and a perfectly unbiassed and unclouded judgment.

That Mr. Saulsbury has for years been addicted to an unfortunate habit, which, if continued, would assuredly and totally unfit him for the proper discharge of the duties of the high position to which he has been appointed, is the chief cause of the storm of indignation that his appointment has aroused.

For Mr. Saulsbury as an individual we have ever entertained the warmest sympathy and kindliest friendship, and as a senator of the United States, in his better moments, he ever commanded our highest regard; but never for an instant could we have entertained the thought of selecting him as the recipient of the responsibilities of the judiciary, much less of the chancery. But the appointment has been made, and, unsatisfactory though it be, Mr. Saulsbury is clothed with the judicial ermine and occupies one of the most exalted positions in the State, and it therefore becomes the citizens of Delaware to "accept the situation" for the present, and await the commission of offensive acts before pouring out vials of wrath and abuse upon his head. The Milford News, last week, in commenting upon the rumor that Mr. Saulsbury would probably receive the appointment, said, "this will not be satisfactory to the people, but Mr. Saulsbury will have it in his power to make it so if he will." Such language as this is far more commendable than the violent and intemperate language used by other journals; and who will deny the intimation there made that if Mr. Saulsbury will forever eschew and abandon his former habits of intemperance, he will be able to fill the position to the satisfaction of the people?

Willard Saulsbury is well known to the people, not of Delaware only, but of the country at large, as a most talented and able man. As a senator of the United States his thrilling eloquence commanded the most ardent admiration, and chained the attention of even his bitterest and most prejudiced enemies, and his opinions upon national and political affairs were listened to with profound respect. His knowledge of legal matters is extensive; the honesty of his character cannot be questioned, and still he will, as Chancellor, be guided in his decisions by right, law and impartial justice no one, not even those who say the severest things of him, will for a moment doubt; and should the reformation which Mr. Saulsbury has for years been striving to make, and of which he has of late shown such fair indications, become permanent, he will make as able and distinguished a Chancellor as any of his predecessors. In the language of the News, he can make the appointment satisfactory if he will; and who can say that he will not? Men more unfortunate in the same unfortunate habit than Mr. Saulsbury have reformed, and Mr S. may, and we sincerely hope will, do so too. Should his appointment to the Chancellorship have this effect, Gov. Ponder, instead of having "disgraced the State," will have done the means of reforming, by his exercise of one of his executive functions, a great good.

The Spanish Outrage.

Throughout the whole country the people are aroused to the most intense excitement and indignation over the fiendish outrage committed by the Spanish officials in Cuba upon the officers, passengers and crew of the steamer Virginius. In New York an immense mass meeting of the citizens was held to give expression to the popular views upon the subject. Steinway's Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. Addresses were made by Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, who presided over the assemblage, Hon. S. S. Cox and others, and resolutions were adopted calling upon the Government to take prompt and active measures to speedily avenge the murder of our citizens and the insult to our national honor. All over the country volunteers are coming forward and tendering their services to the Government for the prosecution of a war with Spain should war be necessary. In the midst of the general excitement the President, as usual, maintains a complete silence, and though importuned as to the course he will pursue in the emergency, refuses to break his reserve. In the meantime, however, the din of warlike preparation is heard, and ironclads and other vessels of war are being made ready for sea. The explanation of this movement is that "the Government is determined to prevent the commission of further outrage."

The war spirit is abroad in the land, and a conflict with Spain seems not only imminent, but almost certain. The Spanish Government expresses itself as ready and willing to make all necessary apologies and reparation, but as the only reparation which our people seem inclined to accept is the surrender of the Virginius, the restoration of her cargo, damages for her detention and the punishment of the murderers of her crew, demands which the Spanish Government are either unable or unwilling to comply with, a war with Spain seems highly probable.

Items of General News.

STORMS IN THE SOUTH.—A severe storm of wind and rain passed over Fairburn, Ga. on Sunday. Houses were unroofed, and a brick wall was blown down upon a frame storehouse killing one of the proprietors of the store. The storm was also very severe in Tennessee and Alabama. Telegraph lines were prostrated in every direction, and at Raleigh, Tenn., a new hotel was blown down, and much other damage done.

The English papers see no reason why England should not at once recognize the independence of the Republic of Cuba.

The London Times thinks that if the Democratic party were in power in this country the Virginius outrage would be speedily avenged by the conquest and annexation of Cuba.

The Spanish Cabinet is in favor of an honorable and satisfactory satisfactory settlement of the Virginius difficulty, but regards the maintenance of the Spanish territory as essential.

William M. Tweed was convicted on fifty-one of the fifty-five counts of the indictment, each account having four counts. Judge Davis deferred sentence until Friday.

The London Daily Telegraph does not despair of a peaceful solution of the Virginius difficulty, and advises the United States Government to acknowledge the belligerency of the insurgents and ultimately guarantee the independence of Cuba, asking in return the abolition of slavery.

Hon. John P. Hale, of New Hampshire, died at his residence in that State last Wednesday, aged about sixty-eight.

Local and State Affairs.

Proceedings of Court.

Reported for the MIDDLETOWN TRANSCRIPT.

The November Term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Sessions of the Peace and Jail Delivery for New Castle County was begun at New Castle on Monday, C. J. Gilpin and Judge Houston were on the Bench, Judge Wootten being absent. The Grand Jury, having been charged by the Court at the May term, as is customary, were not further charged except in reference to the new liquor law.

In the cases of State vs. George Boulden and Chas. Nibbell, and the State vs. Saml. Barclay and Andrew Barclay continued to this term a nolle prosequi was entered by the State's Attorney.

The case of State vs Gregg & Bone, indicted as a nuisance for having a foundry and forges from which cinders annoyed the dwellers of adjoining houses was discontinued.

Seven prisoners whose term of imprisonment expired on Monday were discharged.

Several prisoners indicted for petty larceny were arraigned.

Nearly the whole day was taken up with the "liquor license cases. The remonstrants were represented by Messrs Patterson and Rumford.

The only additional objection to granting licenses, to those raised in the two lower counties was to the certificate of free-holders recommending the license where such freeholders were themselves liquor dealers.

The Court decided that liquor dealers were competent signers, but their vocation affected the credibility of the certificate, and the granting of the license was entirely within the discretion of the Court, who would not grant such license in a case where the freeholders recommending it were largely liquor dealers, unless they were otherwise satisfied of the propriety in so doing.

The not designating with particularity the place for the sale of liquors is fatal, and several applications were refused on this ground.

Messrs. Patterson and Rumford presented two general remonstrances against granting licenses, one of which had the signatures of 1500 persons.

The Court decided that all applicants who did not make oath to the truth of the facts set forth in their application on the first day of the term could not do so afterwards. Several applications were refused on this ground.

Several of the applications presented were not finally acted upon on Monday, but were laid over until next day.

111 applications were presented, of which 32 were granted, 33 refused, 9 abandoned, and the rest went by default on account of the testimony not having been made on the first day.

Among the successful ones were Messrs. Brient and Lockey, of Odessa; Lankford, of Odessa; A. Bowers, of Port Penn, and G. W. Gettis, of Middletown. Andrew Degnan, Henry Johnson and Daniel Hall lost two of the three of parties picking at the Wilmington depot during Grant's visit to that city, were discharged from custody.

Anthony Higgins and John O'Byrn, Esq. counsel for the alleged "Delaware Bank robbers" asked for a continuance of the case on the ground that the prisoners were nonresidents and that many important witnesses were out of the State'

The Att. General replied that such a motion was out of place as the prisoners were not yet arraigned.

The four prisoners, Francis H. Carter, alias Francis McDonnell, Joseph Lawler, Jas. Thomas, alias James J. Watson, alias James Hope and Edward Hurlbert, were arraigned on indictment for an attempt of burglary and each plead "not guilty." The indictment contains two counts, (1) for burglary of Mr. Samuel Floyd's house, (2) of the National Bank of Delaware.

Mr. O'Byrn moved for time to prepare affidavits to sustain the grounds of continuance asked for.

The Attorney General asked that the counsel for the prisoners disclose their grounds for which they seek a continuance as to what they wish to rebut by these witnesses. The court allowed the case to go over till the afternoon, and the prisoners were remanded to Sheriff's custody.

After the opening of Court in the afternoon session the "Bank Robber" prisoners were brought out and placed in the box. Mr. Higgins of counsel for the defence read and submitted to the court, the affidavits of the prisoner to the effect that they could prove an alibi on the day of the attempt to rod the Bank.

Frances H. Carter made affidavit that he could prove he was in Philadelphia on November 7 mentioning the name of the person he was with; and that the public mind was so prejudiced against him as to effect the jurors, and would thereby jeopardize for him an impartial trial unless he could obtain a continuance of the case.

Joseph Lawler also made affidavit that he was in New York City on that evening.

The others made like affidavits to absence on the evening of the attempted robbery. The Court refused the application and fixed Tuesday next for the trial.

Odessa Items.

[From our Odessa Correspondent.]

Our citizens scarcely flare stir at night lest they suddenly find themselves "kerflomexed" in a mud puddle, or into a gutter and, perchance, find their companion clinging to a fence to which he has scrambled to avoid some obstruction in his path, and, again, if peradventure he has a lady friend at his side he is somewhat in a quandary as to what steps to take for he knows not where he may bring up. This all arises from the fact that there are no lamps to show the way for the predestrian. The question is asked by many where are the lamps but the sad response is "among the missing ones" others reply "where they will ever be remembered." But the most satisfactory is, the posts are in the lumber yard waiting to be hewn into proper shape" which event will create as much excitement as the proposed war with Spain. It is hoped that this will not long be witheld from us for it is a great drawback on a good temper. But leaving all to the future and its actions we will submit in hope.

The meeting at the M. E. Church is still continuing in interest and many are coming to God for pardoning grace. We hope many will yet come and be blessed.

The Buell family gave one of their very interesting concerts at the M. E. church to a small but very appreciative audience. It is rumored that they will return at some future date not far distant.

Minor Topics.

Last Sunday was a "pet day;" the weather was delightful; but on Monday it was excessively raw and disagreeable. It rained pretty much all day, and in the evening the first snow of the season fell in sufficient quantity to whiten the ground.

Owing to the difficulty in collecting money Messrs. Bucke & Son and A. R. Penington have been compelled to discharge a portion of their hands. Cox & Bro. have been running on partial time for some weeks.

The Government has ordered the iron-clad steamer Canonicus lying in the Harlan & Hollingsworth Co's yard at Wilmington for repairs, to be put in order immediately.

Some of our young men express themselves as ready and willing to volunteer for war with Spain whenever the Government wants them. They are spoiling for a fight.

Major H. got a heavy tumble last Saturday night, but he was not much hurt. Be careful Major, you were on dangerous ground that night. You may get more and harder falls.

John Drummond, Esq. has completed the repairs upon his mill dam which was so terribly injured by the "Big Flood," and is now ready to attend to the wants of the public.

The Rolling Mill at Newport stepped on Friday of last week and some 70 hands were thrown out of employment.

The Tasker mills at New Castle, were closed a few weeks ago, and their employees discharged. Hard times ahead.

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving day.

Serious Charges.

Samuel M. Harrington, Esq. published a statement last week in which he accused U. S. Marshal Dunn of "packing juries" before the U. S. Court, and of other wise abusing his official power. This very naturally made the marshal pretty mad. He at once replied, denouncing Mr. Harrington's charges as false and malicious, and accusing Mr. H. of endeavoring to injure his character, closing his letter with a plain intimation to Mr. Harrington that he did not intend to allow him to "escape his legal liability."

Mr. Harrington replied, reaffirming his former charges and further accusing Marshal Dunn of stuffing ballot boxes and of bringing forty men from Philadelphia to Wilmington to be used as repeaters at the election in 1870. He also produces an affidavit from a citizen of Wilmington to the effect that Dunn sent men into Appoquinimink Hundred on election day in 1870 to seize the ballot boxes, an account of which villainous proceeding was published in these columns at the time. In closing his letter Mr. H. intimates that his list of charges is not yet exhausted.

Had these charges come from Democrats they would have been called "copperhead lies" by the "moral" Radicals, and very little heed paid to them, but when they are made by some of the marshal's own political household who are presumed to know whereof they speak, they strike deep and hurt badly.

The Amateur Concert.

The concert given by the "Amateur Minstrel Troupe," composed of young men of Middletown and Odessa, on Thursday evening was a very creditable and successful affair. For once the Town Hall was filled to overflowing. Everybody and his brother went to the concert, impelled perhaps by curiosity to see how our minstrels would make out. Their curiosity was gratified, and, judging from the roars of laughter which greeted the performers, the encores and the tremendous applause which shook the house, the audience was well pleased. The singing was good; the acting better, and the music by the orchestra and band firstrate. Should our minstrels in pursuit of their laudable object of helping the band, visit other towns we assure our neighbors that they will get the full worth of their money in some big hearty laughs.

We understand that by special request of many persons, the concert will be repeated, with a change of programme, during the holidays.

Fatally Burnt.

About noon last Monday a little negro boy whose parents live in a tenant house on the farm of Dr. W. F. Godwin, about two miles from Middletown, was fatally burned by his clothes taking fire from the stove. The father and mother were both absent at the time; the only occupants of the house being three little children. A gentleman who was passing saw the smoke issuing from the house and heard the screams of the terrified children and hastened to the rescue. Every thing was done for the little sufferer that could be done, but he died next morning.

New Castle Jail.

A correspondent of the Commercial on Monday, complains of the over-crowded state of our county jail, there being 104 inmates and only 36 cells. That is somewhat crowded, and shows the necessity for more jail accommodations. If the Wilmington people had allowed us to get the county divided, they might have had another jail, in "the city," and more room for their criminals. The present jail is plenty big enough to hold all who are cast there from the rest of the county.

List of Letters in Middletown P. O.

D. L. DURRIDGE, P. M.

AN OLD LADY BURNED TO DEATH.—Mrs. Elisabeth Fleetwood, widow of the late Charles Fleetwood, was burned to death in her house, on Second street, Milford, on Thursday afternoon. She had just returned from a visit to Dover, and it appears her clothes ignited while she was kindling a fire, and before she could make an alarm she was burned to death. Her situation was first discovered by a dense smoke proceeding from her dwelling. She was 74 years of age—Delawarean.

Death of A. A. Laws.

Alex. A. Laws, Esq., proprietor of the Deer Park Hotel, Newark Del., and well known to the citizens of this and the adjoining counties of Maryland, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Macomb Clayton, near Sassafras, Md., last Sunday. Mr. Laws had been in declining health for several months.

Letter from New Castle.

NEW CASTLE, DEL., November 20, 1873.

Dear Transcript:—On last Tuesday the Fall term of courts, for New Castle county, began. From the very large crowd in attendance during the first two or three days, it was quite apparent that there was unusual interest felt in the proceedings, and that a larger portion of the community was affected, by curiosity or a stronger motive to be present, than is commonly brought out on similar occasions. Besides the numbers who came by private conveyances, hacks and the regular trains, there was and is daily a special train of three coaches from Wilmington, which was filled to repletion with those who, either as judges, lawyers, or parties litigant have business in court. Upon inquiry I learn that among the causes which has attracted the multitude, and perhaps the chief one, is the matter of procuring liquor licenses, which, under the new law are to be granted by the Court. That this should account for the large concourse of people is reasonable, as the number of applicants reached the high figure of one hundred and two. It was not found to be the easiest matter in the world to obtain licenses, however, for not only are there legal difficulties to be surmounted, but that association of self-elected saints, whose duties are described by its title, viz: "Poke-your-nose-into-other-people's-business society," is represented by two members of the Bar, who, with numerously signed remonstrances and every conceivable "exception," resist the granting of licences. They thus endeavor to—in the canting phrase of the day—"resist the infamous traffic." They are temperance people, you see, and "Drake's Plantation" and "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" are good enough for them. They like the tone and cheerfulness which the latter is said to impart. In consequence of this opposition, only forty-five licences have been granted.

In the intervals which have occurred in the investigation of license applications, trials of those charged with criminal offences have proceeded. Having been pressed with the energy and zeal characteristic of the Attorney General a number of convictions have been obtained; thus adding considerably to what Carlyle calls "the Devil's regiment of the line." Great interest attaches to the case of the bank burglars, so-called. It was brought up on Tuesday last, and the accused, four as good looking "gentlemen" as you will see in a day's travel, were brought into Court; and thus a vast amount of curiosity was gratified, and for the satisfaction of those who have not had, and may not have the opportunity to see the "lions," I will say that they bear a marvellous likeness to "any other man" in general appearance. Indeed, policeman Carberry is of the opinion that even in their desire to "get money" they are strikingly human. They are defended by Messrs. Anthony Higgins and John O'Byrne. Their lawyers made application based upon the affidavits of the accused that essential witnesses to prove an alibi in each case were absent, to have the case postponed for the term. The Court denied the application in its full extent for various "efficient reasons," but delayed the trial for a week. Tuesday next is, therefore, appointed for the trial, and we anticipate a vigorous prosecution and an able defense. Mr. O'Byrne enforced the application for postponement by a few remarks which, both in manner and matter, were decidedly fine. MORE ANON.

Communicated.

ED. TRANSCRIPT.—I want to say a word about the recent appointment to the Chancellorship. Mr. Saulsbury probably is as the Gazette says "an able jurist, a clear reasoner, an honest and fearless judge," but is not the "failing that mars a life" often painfully conspicuous, at the very times when we have a right to expect an exhibition of these high traits? Is a man notoriously unable to control himself, a suitable person to have the care of orphan childen and their interests? Should he not under all circumstances be a worthy example for them to follow, a true father to the fatherless?

I had hoped we should not be afflicted with brothers-in-law in Delaware; but that grave offence against traditional political honor, might have been passed by for once, had we thereby gained a Chancellor whose moral as well as political character were unimpeachable. As it is, an indignant protest must be made. FAITH.

Maryland Affairs.

Edward R. Helmbold has sold to Simon P. Kase, of Danville, Pennsylvania, the Stuart's Neck farm, in Somerset co., for $65,000, and the Waterford, in the same county, to the same gentleman for $45,000; the former farm contains about 420 acres, and the latter 569 acres of land. Not fifteen years ago the Stuart's Neck farm was sold for $7,000, and the increase of value is on account of its adaption to peach and berry culture, and the fine buildings, liberal use of fertilizers, and high state of cultivation. In 1866 the Waterford farm sold for $11,000 at trustee's sale, and one year ago it was sold for $30,000.

THIEVES IN ELKTON.—Some scoundrel broke into the store of Wm. Mc Clelland, in Elkton last Wednesday night week, by boring a piece out of the front door, and carried off goods to the amount of twenty dollars.

On Thursday afternoon a man, named Reeder, took a buffalo robe from the door of John Perkins, harness maker, and was making off with it, but was stopped by Mr. Perkins, and the robe taken from him. Mr. P. let him go and he stole a turkey from Mr. T. V. Rose's house. This too was taken from him. That fellow is either a "progressionest" or some other kind of a kleptomaniac.

On the 6th instant the real estate of the late Robert Thackery, in Elk Neck, Cecil county, 188 acres, was sold to G. L. Greenwood and Wm. N. Rutter, of Baltimore, for $1,800. The Hall farm, near Rowlandsville, same county, was sold to W. E. Porter for $8,000. The Spencer property, 65 acres, was also sold to G. R. Spencer for $1,050.

Napoleon B. Lee, of Pilot Town, Cecil county, whilst out ducking a few days since, in drawing his gun toward him one of hammers caught and discharged the load in his right arm, rendering amputation necessary.

John R. Graham, of Charleston, Cecil county, recently employed as a section superintendent on the Port deposit branch of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, committed suicide on Wednesday week by taking strychnine.

On Saturday week a white woman named Sarah Hales, living with her brother, James Hales, about six miles from Snow Hill, Worcester county, committed suicide by hanging. She was of unsound mind.

Winter.

Winter is here,
With snow and ice;
Nights long and drear,
When stoves are nice,
With days, so cold
That hearts appal,
Save they who clothe
At TOWER HALL.

Then they can face anything; for, our Clothing is warm, durable, and cheap. Barnett Co., Tower Hall, 510 Market Street, Philadelphia.

"A New Thing under the Sun."

Sixteen Oil Paintings in a Book!

Never before was such an idea attempted for book-illustration; every one who has seen it pronounces it SUPERB. Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's latest work,

WOMAN IN SACRED HISTORY,

is a series of narrative-sketches, drawn from Scriptural, historical, and legendary sources. ILLUSTRATED with Sixteen Choice Oil Chromos, after paintings by the most celebrated artists of the world, giving a rich and magnificent variety of Oriental costume and beauty. Mrs. Stowe in her charming style has written a book full of interest, and without a dull page in it, which even if not illustrated would sell rapidly; but the

make it one of the most unique, original, and remarkable books ever offered. The pictures, if published separately, would readily sell for $2 each—or $32, while the entire book, with the sixteen pictures, together with pamphlets containings of the volume, can be had for one-fifth of that amount. The book is making a tremendous and canvassers, because it is absolutely new and "has money in it." To get pleasant work and good pay, send for terms, circulars, &c., to J. B. FORD & CO., New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, or Cincinnati. Nov 22-4w.

Nov 18-4t. Clerk of Orphans' Court.

TAPE WORM, TAPE WORM, removed in a few hours with harmless Vegetable Medicine. No fee asked until the entire worm, with head passes. Refer those afflicted to residents of the city whom I have cured, that had been unsuccessfully treated at the Jefferson Medical College, on Tenth st., had taken in vain turpentines, the so-called specifics and all known remedies. Dr. E. F. Kunkel, No. 259 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia.

The Doctor has been in business for over 25 years, and is perfectly reliable. Call and see. Advice free. Removed tapeworm from a child six years old, measuring 20 feet. At his office can be seen specimens, some of them over forty feet in length, which have been removed in less than three hours by taking one dose of his medicine. Dr. Kunkel's treatment is simple, safe and perfectly reliable, and no fee until the worm, with head, passes. Dr. E. F. KUNKEL, 259 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Consultation by mail or at office free. [39-3t

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it; condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no collar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.—One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year. We have no travelling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address, "THE SUN," New York City.
Nov 7-6t.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly manifests a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Vandegrift, late of St. Georges Hundred in said county, deceased: it is ordered and directed by the Register that the Administrators aforesaid, give notice of the granting of Letters of Administration upon the Estate of the deceased, with the date of granting thereof, by causing advertisements to be posted, within forty days from the date of such letters, in six of the most public places of the County of New Castle requiring all persons having demands against the Estate to present the same, or abide an Act of Assembly in such case made and provided; and also, cause the same to be inserted, within the same period, in the MIDDLETOWN TRANSCRIPT, a newspaper published in Middletown, and to be continued therein two months.

Given under the hand and seal of Office of the Register aforesaid, at New Castle, in New Castle County aforesaid, the day and year above written.
(L. S.)
B. GIBBS, Register.

NOTICE.

All persons having claims against the Estate of the deceased must present the same duly attested to the Administrators on or before Sept. 29th, 1874, or abide the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR
which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
PREPARED BY
SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass.,
And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.
